

November 6-7

< RESTORING RELIGIOUS FREEDOM CONFERENCE

Law, Religion, Equality, and Dignity

Sunday, November 6 – Emory School of Law, Hunter Atrium

7:00 p.m. Conversation: A Century of Genocides: Is Better Accommodation of Conscience an Answer?

W. Cole Durham, Jr.: Susa Young Gates University Professor of Law at Brigham Young University, Founding Director of the International Center for Law and Religion Studies

Ján Figel': EU Special Envoy on Freedom of Religion or Belief

Sponsored by J. Reuben Clark Law Society, Religious Freedom Project

Monday, November 7 – Emory School of Law, Hunter Atrium

8:30 a.m. Breakfast

9:15 a.m. Opening remarks: Slovak EU Presidency in the Context of Law, Religion, Equality, and Dignity

Peter Kmec: Ambassador of the Slovak Republic to the United States

9:00 a.m. – 11:45 a.m. Panels

11:45 a.m. Lunch

12:30 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. Keynote address:

Douglas Laycock: Robert E. Scott Distinguished Professor of Law, Class of 1963 Research Professor in Honor of Graham C. Lilly, and Peter W. Low Professor of Religious Studies at University of Virginia

2:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. Panels

The Restoring Religious Freedom Project is funded by an anonymous gift.

Register here:

<https://emorylaw.wufoo.com/forms/x1lfucbf1vo1itt/>
For more information, visit: cslr.law.emory.edu